SHORT HORSES WIN

Judge Daniels Suddenly Proposes It for Tom Cleary.

He Charges the Press with Caricaturing the Trial.

On Monday He Will Decide If the Case Shall Be Removed to Another County.

When the Extraordinary Term of the Supreme Court opened for the continuance of the "trial of jurors" in the Cleary case this morning the usually placid features of Justice Daniels were clouded.

He whispered to Clerk Welsh and then passed in the proceedings while Mr. Welsh delivered this communication to the score of reporters:

"Judge Daniels instructs me to say that he is displeased with the reports of the trial printed in some of the papers. He says this table was placed at the disposal of the reporters to facilitate them in making truthful reports of the trial. Instead, some of the papers printed untruthful reports. If he sees any more untruthful reports he says he will order the table removed from the room."

The reporters were indignant, and when Judge Daniels said to them: "Some of the reports have been printed only as untruthful, jurors have been caricatured, and the tendency of the reports has been to draw into public contempt the administration of a court of justice."

"The Times said recently that I was detained one afternoon in the County Clerk's office assisting the Sheriff in drawing a new plan of jurors. This was untrue. I would intimate this morning that it is to my pecuniary interest to drag this proceeding along when in fact I am losing every day, and it is directly against my pecuniary interest to sit here."

"I hope to see no more of it, or I shall be compelled to take severe measures."

Just before adjourning, Justice Daniels sprang this dramatic bomb on the audience:

"In view of the length of time already consumed, and the large number of citizens examined and rejected, and the delay and disqualification for the jury box in this case, because of their strong and fixed bias, and in view of the remoteness of the time when a jury for the trial of this defendant can be obtained, I will, if the defense so desire, give them time to prepare the papers in a motion for a change of the place of trial to some other county."

This was a surprise, indeed, to Gen. Tracy and Ira Shaffer. Heads of sweat started out on the latter and Gen. Tracy turned pale, and he was prepared, but asked till Tuesday to decide.

Mackenzie Semple was bewildered for a moment too. Judge Daniels declined to adjourn except to Monday, but added that if the defense had then decided to move for a change of venue he would give them another day to prepare the papers.

Mr. Semple then said he did not know how hard he should fight the motion, adding lugubriously: "It's a pretty hard job to get unbiased jurors here."

He has been consumed in "trying jurors," and the box is still empty. There have been 430 men examined, not one sitting both sides. Mr. Semple has been satisfied with only five, and these have been peremptorily challenged by the defense. The defense were satisfied with only three, and they were peremptorily challenged by Mr. Semple.

Two hundred men are summoned for Monday, but they will probably not be examined, though Justice Daniels declined to say whether he would grant the change of venue and Gen. Tracy and Mr. Shaffer declared that they didn't know whether they would ask for a transfer or not.

NO HEROICS HERE.

Plain Facts About a Little Fire in Greenwich Street This Morning.

A report telephoned to THE EVENING WORLD from Police Headquarters this morning stated that a fire at 120 A. M. in John Griffin's saloon, at 566 Greenwich street, had caused a damage of $1,500, and that a number of children in the upper part of the house were rescued by Sergt. King, Roundman Cruise and Policemen Alfred Barry, Alfred Power, Dunn and McCauley, of McCauley's fire station.

The truth is that Sergt. King, Roundman Cruise and the others were ready as the police of New York ever are to imperil life and limb to rescue those in danger, but at the fire this morning there was no necessity for any display of heroism, and what the police did there is not in any degree heroic.

The fire was a slight one, causing a damage only of about $60, instead of $1,500.

The flames did not get outside of the saloon.

The police did go through the house, assisting the people to get out, but there was no panic, and the people would have got out just as well and safely without that.

In proof of this the tenant on the top floor, one Murphy by name, says it didn't amount to much, and Capt. Thompson, of the Prince Street station, said to an EVENING WORLD reporter:

"Don't you print any nonsense about heroic rescues at that fire, because there were none. I don't want any sensationalism in my paper. If there was any truth in that report I would know it. I am convinced that the fire did not amount to anything."

Commissioner Croker Goes South.

Fire Commissioner Richard Croker left this afternoon on a trip to the South for health and rest.

Wanted, 10,000 Disabled Men.

Must be poor health and unable to do a good day's work. A disordered liver or any disease caused by scrofula or bad blood will be considered a qualification, but preference will be given to those having obstinate affections of the throat and lungs or incipient consumption. Apply to the nearest drug-store and ask for a bottle of Dr. FLEMING'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

Col. Ingersoll Barred Out of the Players' Club.

Augustin Daly Led the Forces Which Opposed Him.

It Was the Colonel's Anti-Religious Views that Caused It.

Col. Robert G. Ingersoll has been blackballed by the newly established Players' Club, founded by Edwin Booth at 16 Gramercy Park.

The reason of the Colonel's rejection is entirely on account of the well-known religious, or rather anti-religious views entertained by him.

Many of the members contended that Col. Ingersoll's enrollment on the books of the Club would add so much to its prestige that his peculiar agnostical tenets should be overlooked.

It appears that the debate over this point was fast and furious.

Many of the shining lights of the Club were in favor of admitting him. Then, too, some equally as brilliant were bitterly opposed to his admission.

The question was voted on and the fiat has gone forth that the elegant apartments of the actors shall not be graced by the keen-witted lawyer.

"But, of course," continued Col. Ingersoll, "I am not going to break my heart over my rejection. I think I shall be able to survive, and the strikingly strong face relaxed in a pleasant smile, and his clear gray eyes lost their habitual eagle-like sharpness."

"I do not know who it was who first became angry for the Club, and, indeed, I probably know less about the affair than any one connected with it."

"I was informed this morning, however, that Augustin Daly headed the coteries that stood out against me."

"I understand no, I am sure, that it is not at all personal grounds that I have been rejected, but on account of joining the circle spirits constituting the Club. It is wholly, I know, on account of my religious opinions, which you know"—smiling sweetly—"are said to be very peculiar."

"But I think I have been grossly misrepresented at times. You know there is a story—perhaps you have heard it—about my intrusion into the church of a lady as a young woman who never heard a church bell. Of course that is absurd on the face of it, as one of the five living in a civil way, and I am beyond the reach of the sound of a church bell."

"But this hardly anything to do with the case in point, and I can say anything further, except that I am really very sorry that my private opinions, which never injure on anybody, should have been used as a handle to cast a personal slur on me. For, of course, while Mr. Daly and his faction are said to assert that I am personally in the blackballing, yet I can scarcely regard it in the same light as they do."

"But my head is not sore at all over the thing, and I am sure I can stand it. I believe I have still one or two clubs which I can enter and find myself welcomed."

"I must say, however, that I do think Mr. Daly has stretched his piety somewhat in putting me without the pale of his charity."

"You know," with the same lighting up of his face, "that the company are supposed to keep charity on tap for poor sinners like myself. I think they might have given me a drop or two of their superfluous charity."

"Good morning."

An amusing circumstance that the club people must have forgotten is that Col. Robert G. Ingersoll is the company member who has been striving to protect themselves against the invasion of foreign players.

Fallon Was Afraid of La Blanche.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

BOSTON, Jan. 26.—La Blanche the Marine's benefit did not come off last night as expected, being being received at the last moment that Fallon, of Brooklyn, who had agreed to come on and box six rounds with La Blanche, refused to keep his word, and the company's edict was that he was to be paid for his services, and that a number of children in the upper part of the house were rescued by Sergt. King, Roundman Cruise and Policemen Alfred Barry, Alfred Power, Dunn and McCauley, of McCauley's fire station.

The truth is that Sergt. King, Roundman Cruise and the others were ready as the police of New York ever are to imperil life and limb to rescue those in danger, but at the fire this morning there was no necessity for any display of heroism, and what the police did there is not in any degree heroic.

Fought with Bare Knuckles at St. George.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

ST. JOHN, N. B., Jan. 26.—A fight, under London prize ring rules, with bare knuckles, took place at St. George yesterday for a small purse between McFeeters, of Boston River, and Driscoll, of St. George. Five rounds were fought, the last four being desperate. McFeeters knocked out his opponent in each round, and in the fifth sent him to grass so violently that Driscoll did not recover till long after the fight had ended, and the battle was awarded to McFeeters.

With a Silletto in His Side.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

DOVER, N. H., Jan. 26.—William Hartley attended a dance at 17 First street last night and went out about midnight. He was found by the police about 11 o'clock this morning with a silletto in his left side just under the ribs. He was taken home, and his physician thinks he may live. He says two men did the job, but don't know who.

President Richardson Will Try to Run No Cars To-Day.

Strikers Determined, But Maintaining Their Good Order.

Apparent Lack of Americans to Answer the Deacon's Advertisement.

A Little Trouble with Some Italians, in Which One Man Was Bruised.

The striking car conductors and drivers of the Atlantic Avenue Railroad in Brooklyn are keeping very quiet and are awaiting developments.

President Richardson is still confined at his home, but he is not ill enough to be prevented from engineering the course of the Company.

He issued an address to the men last night in which he says men who apply for work to-day will be taken back, and in case they do not apply new men will be placed in their positions.

Commissioner Donovan arrived last evening and immediately proceeded to the office of the Company. He saw Secretary Richardson, and it is said that no settlements were proposed by either side. Secretary Richardson gave his side of the strike and that is about all there was done.

Then the Commissioner held a conference with the Executive Board of District Assembly 75. He will remain in Brooklyn until matters are satisfactorily adjusted.

The Executive Board of 75, consisting of Messrs. Thomas J. Cooper, Patrick Reilly, Thomas F. Byrnes, Andrew D. Best and August Wilson, have opened headquarters on Flatbush avenue, near the Company's office.

The men issued yesterday a statement in the case, in which they say that they cannot now retract and stand by themselves. They say that President Richardson pleads poverty, but that the reports of the Company filed at Albany show that his real reason for making money.

The Deacon's advertisement for 500 Americans to operate his horse cars did not bear much fruit. Either there are no Americans, or they are unemployed, or they are disinclined to work for the Company, for only a quarter of that number applied for work this morning.

Every man, in making out his application, was required to state that he was an American citizen, and in addition to signing an application for work each applicant was required to sign his name to an agreement drawn up and printed by the Company.

The reporters were refused a copy of this, but an EVENING WORLD man learned that it was a statement to work on the trip system, so much a trip. It also bound the men to work more than ten hours, if necessary to the Company's interests. Here are the prices for the trip system: First, 25 cents per trip; Second, 25 cents per trip; Third, 25 cents per trip; Fourth, 25 cents per trip; Fifth, 25 cents per trip; Sixth, 25 cents per trip; Seventh, 25 cents per trip;
